

"Les 2 Présents et les Futurs" : Exercices → CORRIGE

- 1) We aren't working for school now, we are playing football in the garden.
- 2) You don't need (to need → toujours au présent simple) your raincoat;
it isn't raining outside.

-> Tu n'as pas besoin de ton imperméable; il ne pleut pas dehors (sous-entendu: en ce moment)

- 3) - Do they go to the theatre every month ?
- No, they don't.
- 4) Tomorrow it will rain in the North of the country. (Météo au Futur: toujours "Will")
- 5) I'm sure this top model will be rich and famous in five years' time.
- 6) You sometimes help your mum with the cooking but at the moment you are studying for your English test.
- 7) I think my cousin won't come to my father's party next Saturday.
- 8) - Does your little sister take the bus every afternoon after school ?
- No, she doesn't.
- 9) - Are (to be → toujours au présent simple) those flowers fresh ?
- Yes, they are.
- 10) He doesn't want (to want → toujours au présent simple) a glass of coke now, he isn't (to be → toujours au présent simple) thirsty.
He wants a piece of chocolate cake because he is hungry.

11) Do you believe your little brother will pass his driving licence the day after tomorrow?

12) I listen to music every morning on my way to school.

13) Peter will be 15 next Wednesday.

-> Peter aura 15 ans mercredi prochain (= Certitude inevitable)

14) Do they often watch TV in the evening or do they surf the web?

15) We never get up early, we like (to like-> toujours au présent simple) sleeping late.

16) I hope my best friend will come to the cinema with me next Friday.

17) The boss and his secretary go to London three times a year. They are very lucky!

18) My sister is helping my mum next weekend: she is doing the shopping and she is tidying up the house.

19) I usually finish work at 5.30 p.m. but today I'm working to 6.00 p.m.

20) I promise I won't tell your secret to anybody.

-> Je promets que je ne raconterai ton secret à personne (sous-entendu: dans le futur)

